Here's what's coming for kids this July at Darien Library: a singer from The Lion King, a band from Brooklyn, a comic mime who tells stories (we suspect he talks); a chance to read a book, see the movie made from it and discuss, storytime at the library and at the beach.

Tsidii Le Loka Concert

Monday, July 9 at 4 p.m.

Tsidii Le Loka is best known for originating the role of Rafiki in the original Broadway production of Disney's stage musical, The Lion King. This musical performance will engage the audience in contemporary culture and music influenced by South African traditions.

*Tickets will be distributed 15 minutes prior to the program. Space is limited.

Open. Grades K and up.
