The Community Fund of Darien's invites groups of friends and family members to compete in the TCF's inaugural "community chase" competition, "Mission: Possible!" The contest supports local nonprofits.

Looking for a way to connect with friends and family while supporting our community at the same time? Your mission, if you choose to accept it, is to join the TCF's virtual competition for teams of all ages.

Mission: Possible! is a fun-filled, socially distanced event that will take place the week of Sept. 19 to 26 and will benefit TCF's nonprofit partners' programs that strengthen youth, adults and families in Darien, Norwalk and Stamford.

Using a mobile device, teams of four to six players will be assigned points for each mission completed. Players can track progress and rankings on a live leaderboard. Play casually, or be “in it to win it” for a <https://darienite.com> tagging rights!

Missions will go live at 9 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 19, and players will have until 6 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 26 to complete their challenges.

Sample missions include:

- Name the oldest church in Darien; Bonus points for submitting a photo of your team leaving four cans of soup in the church’s collection box for one of The Community Fund of Darien’s non-profit partners’ food pantry.
- Take a selfie of your team outside of a participating Darien local business sponsor.
- Submit a video of your family playing “The floor is lava.”

Teams are encouraged to share their mission photos on TCF’s Facebook and Instagram pages using the hashtag #TCFMissionPossible.

“Mission: Possible! is a great way to safely unite our community while respecting social distancing,” said Janet King, The Community Fund of Darien’s executive director.

“We wanted to create a unique, fun and exciting activity that gives people the chance to explore and learn more about their hometown and our nonprofit partners, who provide so much support for our neighbors in Darien, Norwalk and Stamford.”

To participate, register at www.communityfunddarien.org ($50 per team, create your own team of four to six players.) Registration fees will directly support TCF’s local nonprofit partners.

An email confirmation will contain TCF’s “Mission: Possible!” game code; download the free “Goose Chase” app on your iPhone or Android and enter the game code within the app to begin.

To complete a mission, select it from the list and follow the instructions to receive the allotted points.

Missions may involve submitting a photo or video, checking-in at a specific location or solving a puzzle or riddle. The choice is yours!
