for seven years. He was a member of Darien's Board of Education for eleven years, and he has served on the NCC Foundation for eight years. George has been involved in other civic matters throughout his legal career.

For more than 35 years, Reilly has been practicing law involving matrimonial matters, real estate and estate planning with others in Rucci Law Group.

The NCC Foundation provides scholarship assistance to hundreds of students each semester, and it funds college programs such as the Veterinary Technology program and new Digital Media Center. "I am delighted to lead such a valuable resource for our community," Reilly said.

Reilly isn't the only NCC Foundation official with Darien connections: Carrie Bernier, executive director of the NCC Foundation, previously headed the Community Fund of Darien.

"We are excited to welcome Tara and Laura, and proud to have George serve as this year's board president," Bernier said. "Our Board of Directors is comprised of a dedicated team of community leaders committed to supporting student success at Norwalk Community College."

Two new directors were also appointed to the board, the foundation announced: Tara Arnold of Fairfield, Head of Community Relations at Bridgewater Associates, and Laura Sterner of New Canaan, Head of Capital Development and Investor Relations at Point72.
