Simply pay full price at one of the nine participating attractions and receive a special discount at all of the other participating attractions.

Stepping Stones members can simply pick up a Sound of Summer punch card during their next visit and show it, along with their museum membership card, to access Sound of Summer benefits at participating attractions. There is no purchase necessary

“Norwalk is truly open for business,” said Robert Townes, director of community advocacy at Stepping Stones. “We have such a diversity of entertainment options in Norwalk that residents and out-of-town visitors can enjoy on staycations or vacations. We wanted all area businesses to benefit from cross promotion. There is so much for families to do in Norwalk this summer and the Sound of Summer program helps highlight all the offerings.”

The Sound of Summer Savings program is valid through Labor Day, Sept. 3, 2018. The punch card is available at all participating attractions listed below. Present the card and proof of purchase from one attraction to take advantage of the special offers. Visit the website of each participant listed below for full rules and details about their offerings.
