Editor's note: Names are shown as given by Darien High School, in the Commencement Program, although when we see a different version of a first name in the list published by Neirad, we use Neirad's version. If we notice a spelling difference in the last name, we use the school's version if we don't find the proper spelling on the Internet. Neirad didn't list students who did not respond when asked about their post-graduation plans, and we didn't, either; we also didn't list students not listed in the Commencement Program.
