

ID Theft From Darien Man Results in Fraudulent Transaction by Phone and Attempt to Cash Check

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Public Safety

Date : February 17, 2022

An officer from a police department in Pennsylvania told a Lake Drive resident that a male tried to cash a fraudulent check using a phony Connecticut identification card "that had all of the victim's information on it," Darien police said.

The man told Darien police on Feb. 7 that in addition to the call from police in Pennsylvania, his bank told him about a fraudulent phone transaction, Darien police said.