

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

If You've Seen This Missing 17-Year-Old, Please Tell New Canaan Police

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Public Safety

Tagged as : New Canaan Missing Person 2019

Date : June 18, 2019

A 17-year-old girl was reported missing early Friday in New Canaan, and police in that town are asking that anyone with information about her whereabouts to call them.

— This article originally was published by NewCanaanite.com.

Melissa Cheyenne Davis, pictured at right, has a scar on her right knee, New Canaan Police Lt. Jason Ferraro said in a news release.

She had been visiting family in New Canaan with her parents and a sibling when police were dispatched to Marvin Ridge Road at 5:16 a.m., Friday, Ferraro said.

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

She last was seen by relatives at about 9 p.m. Thursday, he said, when she went to her bedroom at the family friend's home on Mavin Ridge Road near Willowbrook Lane. (about a mile northeast of the northeast corner of Darien).

“At this time it appears that Melissa might have run away from the residence and has yet to be located and is missing,” Ferraro said. “It is possible that Melissa is still in the local Fairfield County area or possibly in New York City. Melissa’s family is very concerned for her well-being and safety.”

Davis is a resident of Old Fort, N.C., Ferraro said.

The case is not connected to the ongoing investigation into Jennifer Dulos’s disappearance.

Anyone with information regarding Melissa’s whereabouts is asked to contact Sgt. Joseph Farenga of the New Canaan Police Investigative Section at 203-505-1332 or the New Canaan Police main number at 203-594-3502.