The Connecticut Department of Transportation has announced, at the last minute, road work projects closing lanes on Interstate 95 northbound-traffic lanes at these spots on or near Darien (the one in Darien appears to be over):

Here are three announcements this morning which appear to be overlapping:

— "Road Work on I-95 Northbound between Exits 8 and 10 (3.0 miles) in effect today until 12:00 pm. The left lane is closed. Reported Sunday, February 21 at 8:42 am." — from a DOT Web page

— The announcement above appears to cover what may be two different projects noted in these Sunday morning tweets. The tweet on the bottom indicates work is over near Exit 10:
