New Canaan police are seeking the owner of a black-and-white cat found July 4 on Talmadge Hill Road, which runs close to that town's border with Darien.

Believed to be male, the cat is in good condition and has no microchip, according to Officer Allyson Halm, head of the New Canaan Police Department's Animal Control section.

He was hanging around near a Talmadge Hill Road resident's home and taken in on Independence Day.

On July 6, the cat bit that individual, believed to be in a playful manner, Halm said.
