

James Leet, 94, Former Darien Resident, Worked for Airlines, Active in Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Obituaries

Tagged as : Darien Obituaries 2017, Darien Obituaries April 2017, Darien Obituaries March 2017, Darien Obituary, Darien Obituary 2017, Darien Obituary April 2017, Darien Obituary March 2017

Date : April 6, 2017

James Oliver Leet passed away on March 30. he was 94.

Born on July 29, 1922 in Ramsey County, N.D to Louis and Carrie Johnson Leet, Jim and his older sister, Margaret, grew up on the Leet family farm.

He met his future wife, Jean Stroup, at North Dakota State University. Following college his spirit of adventure drew him to the growing aviation industry and he joined Pan American World Airways.

During his early years with Pan Am, he lived in Brazil, New York, Newfoundland and Shannon, Ireland.

Following their marriage in 1947, Jim and Jean were transferred to London, where they lived for eleven years.

— an obituary from Edward Lawrence Funeral Home

In 1958 the family moved back to the U.S. and settled in Darien. Later moves brought them to Weston Mass., Rye N.Y., Norwalk and Wilton.

Jim spent most of his career with Pan Am but also spent several years with Aer Lingus and Northeast Airlines. Following his retirement from the Pan Am, Jim took his talents to the International Executive Service Organization (IESC) where he worked for over 10 years.

His was a life well-lived. He loved to travel, play golf and spend time with friends and family. He is remembered for his smile and the twinkle in his eye.

Jim was pre-deceased by his wife, Jean, in 2016, as well as his sister, Margaret and is survived by his children: Janis Leet (John Fitch) of New Fairfield, Jay Leet (Sally) of Tigard, Ore. and Jonathan Leet (Tracy) of Scituate, Mass.; six beloved grandchildren and their spouses, and six great-grandchildren.

Jim held leadership positions in Rotary International and in the Kiwanis Club of Wilton.

Funeral arrangements are pending. Please visit the funeral home website for updated service information.