

John Geddes, 66, Grew Up in Darien, Loved Golf, Traveling, Theater, Movies, Jazz

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Obituaries

Tagged as : Darien Obituaries 2019, Darien Obituaries September 2019, Darien Obituary 2019, Darien Obituary September 2019

Date : September 15, 2019

John McIntire Geddes, 66, of New York City and Cranford New Jersey passed from this life on Sept. 13, 2019.

John was born in Queens and grew up in Darien. After a 33-year career in advertising at The New York Times, he retired to enjoy his life's passions; golf, traveling, theater, movies, and jazz.

He is survived by his loving wife, Susan; his devoted sister, Barbara Loh and her husband, Wallace Loh; his sister-in-law Irene Reumann; his mother-in-law, Gerda Schultz; as well as a niece and nephew.

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

John will be greatly missed by his family and many friends who loved him dearly and will always remember his gracious charm, wit, and style.

— This obituary was published Sunday, Sept. 15 in the New York Times and other newspapers.

- "Goodnight sweet friend: thy love ne'er alter, till thy sweet life end."

—Shakespeare