John ("Jack") Schultz Jr. , 28, of Washington, D.C., and formerly of Darien, passed away July 20, 2022 at Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Jack was the son of John Schultz Sr. and Nancy (nee Nessler) Schultz of Haverford, Pennsylvania. He worked for Carahsoft Technologies in Reston, Virginia.

Jack graduated with a degree in labor and employment relations from Pennsylvania State University, where he was a member of the Sigma Pi fraternity. He was a 2012 graduate of Radnor High School.

Born in Atlanta, Jack grew up in Darien, Paris and Wayne, Pennsylvania. Jack's years in Paris, where he attended the Marymount International School in Neuilly-sur-Seine, set in motion his love of travel; he visited dozens of foreign countries.

Jack will be remembered for his sense of humor, quick wit, love of family and encyclopedic knowledge of music and sports.

In addition to his parents, Jack is survived by his sisters, Anna Schultz of Philadelphia and Margaret (Maggie) Schultz of Brooklyn, New York; his grandmother, Mary Anne Nessler of LaGrange Park, Illinois;
