Four plump victims, all pillows, minding their own business on chairs outside an Allen O'Neill Place home, were viciously attacked by a knife-wielding vandal sometime over the past month, according to police.

The complainant told police about the incident at 7:17 p.m., Saturday.

Darien police indicated that the motive for the incident remains a mystery. The complainant, a resident of the home, said it was unclear how much it would cost to either repair the injured parties or replace them.
