Art Auction Raises $10,460 for Corbin Cares

Monday April 27 — Darien artist Nobu Miki said in an email that $10,460 was raised to benefit Corbin Cares in her art auction, which ended Sunday. Corbin Cares is a project providing food for seniors and others in need in Darien and nearby communities. Here's Miki's email:

I'm excited to report the final results of my auction to benefit Corbin Cares. My paintings raised $10,460!

Thank you so much for your patience, support and generosity.

I had already been half self-isolating and painting with my dogs and cats since I came to Darien in 2003 before the coronavirus forced me to be in total self-isolation just like everyone else.

Total self-isolation has still been tough for me but it hasn't changed my passion for creating art, and it has actually ended up making me think about what art can do.

This auction showed that Coronavirus hasn't discouraged this community and it proved that we could unite strongly for a good cause even we can't see each other in person.

Thank you so much for this great experience - you guys have confirmed my theory that artists can't save lives but art can inspire.

Please stay well.
