Here's how Darien restaurants and other food-serving places fared in the latest inspection reports, released Thursday by the Darien Health Department.

The department on Thursday released four reports of inspection visits from Feb. 27 to 28. Of those, one inspection resulted in a "B" rating and "A" was the rating for the three others. No establishment was rated "C."

Keep in mind that a food-serving establishment with a history of good ratings may occasionally get a poor inspection rating, occasionally the best do, and every restaurant normally gets a few things wrong.

Here's an alphabetical list of the most recently released health inspection results (an explanation of how this list is put together is immediately below it):

— Meatball & Company — 20 Center St. — Feb 28 — Town Rating: A — State Score: 93

How Darien's Food-Serving Places Are Rated

Restaurants in town are rated under the Darien Health Department's own A/B/C ratings system. Health inspectors also use the state health code regulations to score restaurants, with a perfect score set at 100, and demerits (of 1 to 4 points each) for various code violations.

Any establishment actually deemed unsafe can be closed by the town Health Department until violations are fixed.
