The latest string of overnight thieving from and entering vehicles occurred from Monday to Tuesday, Sept. 23 to 24, involving 11 vehicles at 10 addresses on Oak Park Avenue, Nolen Lane and Leeuwarden Road, according to Darien police.

In every case, the vehicle was left outside, unlocked. The first report came to police at 6:15 a.m., Tuesday.

In the list below, we've noted when items were reported stolen (if no item is noted, it appeared to the owner that nothing was missing):
