To the editor:

I am writing in support of Terrie Wood's candidacy to represent Darien and Norwalk as our state representative.

I believe that Terrie's socially responsible positions on issues such as reproductive rights and the environment along with her commitment to working toward bipartisan solutions to the important fiscal challenges facing Connecticut make her exactly the sort of candidate we need to support.

In a time of deep political divisions, Terrie exemplifies the type of sensible, cooperative, outcome-focused legislator we need to see more of. Let's make Connecticut a model for real bipartisan government that works.
