To the Editor:

On behalf of all the young adults and adult advisors of Darien EMS–Post 53, we would like to thank everyone who attended our 31st Memorial Day Food Fair at Tilley Pond Park, supporting the work we do in the community.

We send a special thank you to the Town of Darien for the use of Tilley Pond Park, and to the Darien Police Department and Darien Parks and Recreation for their help. Thank you to the parents of Post 53 members who are a huge help before and during the Fair.

We also thank Darien businesses that donated food and other services, most especially Palmer’s Market, Fisherman’s Net, The Goose, Michael Joseph’s, The Boatyard at Smokey Joe’s BBQ, Espresso NEAT, Finocchio Bros. Inc., and Ring’s End.

We are also grateful for the generous donations of silent auction items from businesses and individuals including: JetBlue; JoyRide; Carnegie Prep; Bodega; Vineyard Vines; Morley; Woodway Country Club; Infinity Fitness; HanMade by Han; Lanphier Day Spa & Salon; Lymbr; The Bar Method; Pure Barre; Dance on the DL; Equinox; Club Pilates; Salt Cave of Darien; Gut Reaction; Andrew Stefano Salon and Spa; Darien Arts Center; Kirby and Company; Hands on Pottery; C2 Education; Kings Highway Tennis Club; Everything is Rosey; Dolce Nail and Spa; KVO Collections; Keiley Fuller Arm Candy; JKB Organizing; Embody
