Darien's newest coffee house, Caffè Nero, will be host to "Coffee & Culture," a benefit for the Darien Arts Center, on Thursday, Feb. 28 from 6:30p.m. to 9 p.m.

The evening will include live acoustic music by DAC music instructor Dan Saulpaugh, artwork by the 2018 Ginny Wright Scholarship recipient Nadia Czebiniak, and complimentary beverages and light fare provided by Caffè Nero.

Admission to event is $20 and all proceeds will support the Darien Arts Center. To purchase tickets, visit the DAC website or purchase at the door.

Caffè Nero is located at 1075 Post Road in Darien, and parking for the event is available in the rear of the building in addition to on-street parking.

Founded in 1975, the Darien Arts Center is the only non-profit in Darien dedicated to providing visual and performing arts programs and events for the community.

The DAC offers educational programs in dance, visual arts, music, theatre and martial arts. Private donations, grants, tuition fees and ticket sales fund the DAC, which is not subsidized by the town of Darien.
