Date : May 28, 2019

Settle in for some serious studying, Darien! The Long Night Against Procrastination is back again for final exams.

Modeled after similar programs at Duke and UNC Chapel Hill, the Long Night Against Procrastination is an after-hours event just for high school students to help them focus and study in a collegiate environment.

Find a quiet corner in the Library to review your notes, take a break with de-stress activities, or consult a reference librarian for your research needs.

Dinner, snacks, and beverages will be served.

To ensure student status, a Darien High School or private school ID will be required for admittance.

- CARMAGGEDON WARNING: With the I-95 closure at Exit 9, allow extra time for driving on main roads in Darien, especially near highway exits and possibly with some frustrated, angry drivers on the road. If construction work gets finished by Sunday night, extra traffic likely would be lessened and maybe even gone.
