

Darienite

News for Darien

<http://darienite.com>

Meet Shay, a Hound Mix at Stamford Animal Control Shelter Who Needs a Home

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Animals

Tagged as : Adoptable Pet 2017Pets from Stamford Animal Control 2017

Date : December 20, 2017

We just fell in love with Shay at Stamford Animal Control and were sad to hear the story of how she landed in a cage on Magee Avenue.

According to Animal Control Officer Tilford Cobb, a week ago someone abandoned this skinny, six- to seven-month-old puppy in a crate by the shelter's dumpster.

— This article originally was published by Greenwich Free Press.

Shay is super friendly and sweet. She impressed us as very intelligent and focused.

Contact Stamford Animal Control if you are interested in meeting Shay or any of the dogs or cats available for adoption.

Located at 201 Magee Ave in Stamford, the shelter is open seven days a week from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The best place to follow the news from Stamford Animal Control and see available dogs and cats for adoption is through its Facebook timeline. You can call them at (203) 977-4437.

See also:

- Bruno, a Big, 9-Month Old Puppy, Needs a Home (Dec. 15)
- Meet Benny, a Very Cuddly Beagle — and You Could Adopt Him (Dec. 17)
- Here's Baby, an Adoptable Dog at Stamford Animal Control (Dec. 19)