While construction is taking place on I-95 at Exit 9 east of Stamford this Saturday and Sunday, June 1 and 2, Metro-North will add cars to its service to accommodate additional riders. Customers should expect the possibility of crowded conditions.

— This announcement, incompetently buried (for how long?) on Metro-North's website, was dug up Friday morning. After this article appeared, it was posted on the Metro-North home page.

For customers traveling to the Yankee games at Yankee Stadium on Saturday and Sunday, Metro-North will operate a second Yankee Clipper train from New Haven, as well as the regularly scheduled train from Stamford, with additional return service after the game:

Inbound to Yankee Stadium- E. 153rd St., one additional train will be added departing New Haven at 3:12
