Nancy (Sienkiewicz) Nelson passed away on Oct. 10, 2019 at the age of 61.

Nancy lived the life she wanted to live. She grew up in Darien. She was a skilled bookkeeper at several large corporations in California and New York, and finally at Microspec in New Hampshire. She was a very dedicated employee, highly respected by her colleagues.

When she and her ex-husband Dan moved to Jaffrey, New Hampshire, she opened the Oribe Shop selling local garden plants and gifts. They then built a beautiful reclaimed post and beam home on Sand Hill Road in Peterborough. Nancy retired to Wilmington, North Carolina in 2016.
