OPUS for Person-to-Person has announced their new Board of Directors, effective immediately. Working together, the new Board of Directors will continue to support Person-to-Person in their mission to provide more than 25,000 people in our community with food, clothing, emergency assistance and scholarship programs.

The three co-presidents are Cristina Paolazzi, Kerry Pearson and Jamie Rose. Together, they have been working with OPUS for over 12 years, spearheading major fundraising events like this year’s “Summer Soirée,” securing tens of thousands of dollars of donations from corporate sponsors, and engaging current and alumnae members in critical initiatives that fund the programs at Person-to-Person.

Supporting the three Co-Presidents are 22 Board Members, who are equally as dedicated and passionate about helping the families in our neighboring communities who need it most. Those board members are:

—Catherine Rykowski, Vice President

—Libet Koncz, Secretary

—Libby Cook and Ashling Keenan, Treasurers

—Jessica Bartch, Mariely Clarkson and Kerry Kerwar, Corporate Development
