The kitchen and bakery have reopened at Palmer's Market, the store announced Wednesday in an email to customers, and it told customers that the hours have changed.

At the bottom of this article, we've added the most current listing of all supermarket hours and information in town, from the town government website.

Palmer's Announcement

Dear Customers,

This new week has brought us some new changes that we wanted you to be aware of.

REVISED STORE HOURS

EMERGENCY GROCERY SERVICE

In an effort to ensure that we can get groceries to everyone in need, only 1 order per household per week will be permitted. Please take this into consideration when ordering. We have also started limiting the number of orders per day so that we can ensure that all orders placed can be fulfilled the following day. If you are unable to place your order one day, please try again the next day. Midweek is usually slowest.

KITCHEN AND BAKERY REOPEN

As some of you may have noticed, we were able to re-open our kitchen this week. While we don't have a full staff, we do have a good number of team members that were willing to return to work and the food cases are starting to fill back up. The bakery team has also returned to work and the service counter will reopen tomorrow.

Stay Well,

The Palmer Family
