“Ms. Rene has been a part of the Patriot team since 2015. Patriot Bank is excited for her to take on this new role and become an even stronger asset to our many customers across the Darien community,” said Christopher Johnson, Patriot Bank senior vice president & director of branch banking.

“We are looking forward to Cherly’s help in growing and expanding business and community efforts across that great community,” he said.

Rene earned her bachelor’s degree in psychology from the University of Bridgeport and currently lives in Greenwich.

“I am honored and excited to be joining Patriot’s Darien branch leadership and helping to continue and expand the bank’s footprint and mission in serving and giving back to our local communities,” she said.

With nearly two decades of industry experience, Rene said she expects to foster an environment that inspires, motivates, and supports the hands-on leadership for workers and customers.

“I look forward to doing my part in the dynamic Darien community and establishing even greater relationships with residents and local businesses,” she said.
