

Paul Conrad, 50, Loved Hiking, Cooking, Reading, Rescuing Animals

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Obituaries

Tagged as : Darien Obituaries 2020, Darien Obituaries September 2020, Darien Obituary 2020, Darien Obituary September 2020

Date : September 10, 2020

Paul C. Conrad, a resident of Darien, passed away at his home on Friday, Sept. 4, 2020. He was 50.

Born on Dec., 29, 1969 in Holyoke, Massachusetts, he was the son of Lyman and Judith (Durand) Conrad.

Paul graduated from Syracuse University with a bachelor's degree in marketing and finance. He worked as a commercial manager for Liberty Recycling in Bristol.

A devoted fan, Paul loved all Syracuse University sports and enjoyed attending games with his mother, Judy. He enjoyed hiking with his family and helping his wife, PJ, with the rehabilitation of young, orphaned wild animals.

As an avid reader and a lively storyteller, Paul had a zest for life. He could whip up just about anything in the kitchen, and would gladly school you in final Jeopardy. He lived life to the fullest, and shared his wisdom with his friends and family.

Aside from his parents, Paul is survived by his wife, Margaret "PJ" Conrad; and his children: Brittany, Taylor Marie, Katherine, and Christopher of Darien. He is also survived by a brother, Steve Conrad (Laurie) of South Hadley, Massachusetts; a sister, Kate Redfern (Paul) of Glastonbury, and many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of Paul's life will be held at a later date. Donations in memory of Paul can be made to Tailor's

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

Wildlife Rescue Group, P.O. Box 8028, Stamford, CT 06905.

— an obituary from Edward Lawrence Funeral Home, where online condolences may be left