

Police Chief Raymond Osborne to Speak to Darien Men's Association Wednesday Morning

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Public Safety, Talks-Panel Discussions-Presentations-Workshops

Tagged as : Darien Men's Association 2018, Raymond Osborne 2018

Date : May 8, 2018

Darien Police Chief Raymond Osborne will talk about new developments and trends in law enforcement on Wednesday, May 9, 2018, at the Darien Men's Association.

Chief Osborne was sworn in as Darien's 10th chief of police in 2016. He joined the force in 1983 and served as a police officer, detective, sergeant, lieutenant and captain.

— an announcement from Darien Men's Association

He is a member of the Darien Police SCUBA team, the South West Regional Response Team's Hostage Negotiation Team and the Darien Police School Security Committee.

His talk starts at 10:45 a.m. and is open to the public. Guest passes are available at the membership desk just outside the meeting room.

DMA meetings are held at the Darien Community Association, 274 Middlesex Road, Darien.