

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

---

Police: Renter Awakes to Find New Landlord Standing Over Him, Knife in Hand, Demanding to Know When He's Moving Out

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Public Safety

Tagged as : Assault 2022, Home Invasion 2022, Landlord 2022, Threatening 2022

Date : July 29, 2022

A man renting a condominium unit on Gideon Lane was woken up at 1:15 a.m. to a nightmare when, according to police, he found his new landlord standing in his bedroom, holding a knife and yelling at him, demanding to know when he was moving out.

Darien police gave this account of what happened, including accusations not proven in court:

The landlord, Nancy Micha, 58, of Milford, apparently took over from her late brother, who was renting out the condominium unit. Micha planned to sell the residence and had told the renter she wanted him out by Aug. 1 (this coming Monday).

The renter, who went to police the following afternoon, told them that Micha, without warning, started stabbing his bed and the walls of the bedroom. She also struck him with a light fixture, which resulted in a minor injury to his arm. After about 20 or 30 minutes, she left.

The renter went to police the next day, early in the afternoon. A police officer tried to contact Micha, who wouldn't immediately respond, so Milford police detained her at her workplace.

When Darien police talked to Micha, she said she had been getting complaints about the renter, so she drove to the condo to confront him.

Micha said she went to the man's home late at night because she thought the complainant would be home at that time. She said that a verbal argument took place after she arrived, and she became very angry, throwing a lamp and a water bottle at the man.

She also admitted that she had a knife with her — for protection, she said. She did put holes in the walls with a knife, she said. She also said that she didn't recall stabbing the mattress, but she did lean on it.

Micha was arrested on charges of committing a home invasion, first-degree burglary, third-degree assault, criminal attempt at second-degree assault, disorderly conduct, second-degree reckless endangerment and second-degree threatening.

She was released on a $25,000 bond and is scheduled to appear in state Superior Court in Stamford on Tuesday, Aug. 2.