“We are thrilled to welcome our clients and the community to our brand new home on the Post Road,” said Kristin McClutchy, owner of Pure Barre Darien.

“We will continue to offer top-notch classes, even better retail and the same friendly teachers and staff clients have come to know and love in a brand new studio space less than a mile from our former location. We are so excited to share all that the new studio has to offer.”

Previously located within the Noroton Heights Shopping Center, the new studio offers a bright, airy and larger studio space as well as increased retail space to feature popular athletic wear brands including Beyond Yoga, alo yoga, Splits59, Pure Barre, Spiritual Gangster, S'well, Koral, Rhone and additional accessory and apparel brands.

“We are thrilled to offer the same effective classes designed to sculpt, tone and strengthen, with an intense, low impact workout that improves endurance, flexibility and balance. We are eager to have our clients experience our new space, and look forward to welcoming new clients to our studio,” McClutchy said.

Pure Barre Darien is currently offering new clients their first week free, as well as an "Intro Month" special offering 30 days unlimited classes for just $99. To find out more about the studio name including its class schedule, please visit the Pure Barre Darien website.
