

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

Register Soon: Five-Week Coding Class for Adults at Darien Library Starts Sept 4

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Classes, Darien Library

Tagged as : Coding Class 2019

Date : August 28, 2019

Darien Library is offering a five-week coding course for adults, meeting on Wednesdays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., starting this coming Wednesday, Sept. 4.

Registration is now open. As of Wednesday morning, there were 10 spaces left in the course, half of the total available. The class continues through Wednesday, Oct.2.

Here's the library's description of the course:

Calling all moms, entrepreneurs, college students, or anyone interested in learning the basics of computer

Dariente coding! News for Darien

<https://dariente.com> learning in Python. Think of it as like a new language: in addition to learning syntax, and writing scripts, we will work on developing computational thinking-breaking down big problems into simple individual tasks.

The best news? No experience is necessary! Students are required to bring a laptop for use during this class.

Looking to learn Python on your own? We've got you covered.

About the Instructor

Varghese John, Ph.D., is an experienced technologist with a scientific research background and a love for learning and teaching science, technology and mathematics.

He has led large global teams delivering innovative solutions to complex problems for leading financial service organizations.

VJ is passionate about delivering STEM education for children and adults in order to build a community of citizens who can apply logic and scientific thinking to address global challenges.

Register here.