Just before 8:30 a.m., today, Thursday, a Darien woman confronted a stranger climbing the stairs of her home on Ridgely Street, she told police.

The man told her he was delivering a package. She told him to leave, and he did.

Darien police released this further account of the incident:

"Based on a preliminary investigation, it was determined that there were no threats made, nothing was taken from or disturbed within the residence, and there are no apparent connections between the homeowner and suspect.

"The suspect was described as a white male wearing dark pants and a gray sweatshirt, and was seen driving
