

Rowayton Gardeners Have Online Xmas Market Thru Nov 28, In-Person Pickups Dec 4

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Community Organizations, Gardening, Holidays

Tagged as : Christmas 2021, Rowayton Annual Christmas Market 2021, Rowayton Gardeners 2021

Date : November 25, 2021

Ready to start your holiday shopping? The Rowayton Gardeners is online now with their second “Virtually Yours” online store.

More than 175 items will be offered for sale, including festive gifts and unique ornaments, fresh bundled greens and our designer-quality wreaths are ready for purchase online now and through Sunday, Nov. 28.

— an announcement from The Rowayton Gardeners club

Shop early to get the best selections. Your purchased items will be available for pick-up at The Potting Shed behind the Rowayton Community Center, 33 Highland Avd. on Saturday, Dec. 4 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at our in person Christmas Market.

The Market features designer-quality wreaths and center pieces, one-of-a-kind gifts, plum pudding, mini trees and ornaments – all reasonably priced. A range of fabulous items will be on offer at the Silent Auction, and Santa is also on hand to welcome children and grandchildren.

Don't miss this popular fund raising holiday event sponsored by Fairfield County Bank and supporting sponsor Rand Insurance.

Come support the Garden Club's mission of spreading the word about conservation, maintaining most of our public spaces, introducing children to the joy of growing living things, and raising community awareness about the environment. Join us and treat yourself to something beautiful for your home, family and friends.