

Sen Bob Duff & Family hosts Free Pasta Dinner Dance on Saturday

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Government & Politics, Weekend Events

Tagged as : Bob Duff 2016, Senate District 25 2016, State Senate District 25 Election 2016

Date : October 18, 2016

Senate Majority Leader Bob Duff and his family, invite members of the Norwalk and Darien communities to a free pasta dinner dance at the American Legion on Saturday, Oct. 22, 2016 from 5 to 9 p.m. Attendees are asked to donate a canned food item for a local food pantry.

“Enjoy a delicious dinner with homemade sauce, salad, dessert and coffee. DJ Corky will have everyone dancing all night long.” There will be a cash bar.

Bob’s great-aunt, wife and mom will be making the sauce and his family will be serving, “I want this to be a fun event and a night to celebrate our freedom and democracy.” Kids are welcomed and encouraged to join in the fun.

What: Free Pasta Dinner Dance with Socks the Clown, the Serendipity Chorale and DJ Corky

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

When: Saturday, Oct. 22, 2016

Time: 5 to 9 p.m.

Where: American Legion, 60 County Street, Norwalk

Who's invited: Members of the Norwalk and Darien communities

No RSVPs necessary