The tournament was one of the organization’s central fundraisers, drawing over 100 golfers and raising over $130,000 for the SilverSource Elderly Housing Stability Program, Elder Eviction Protection and the Ride To Wellness Medical Transportation Program.

Tournament participants enjoyed a variety of competitions in addition to 18 holes of golf. Tournament play activities included a longest drive contest, closest to the pin competition, a closest to the line contest, and a hole-in-one competition presented by BMW of Darien. Participants attempted to get a hole-in-one to win a 2019 BMW 330xi.

“The 19th Annual SilverSource Charity Golf Outing was a great success,” said Kathleen Bordelon, SilverSource executive director. “We’re very grateful to the generous businesses and individuals that came out in support of greater-Stamford seniors in need.”

A rousing live auction was led by television personality, Alan Kalter, and raised funds to help seniors keep a roof over their heads, afford healthcare and basic necessities as well as heat, hot water, and to fight hunger.

Honoree: Stamford Attorney Richard Silver

The event honored Richard Silver, senior partner of Silver Golub & Teitell. Silver was presented with the 2019 SilverSource Champion Award.

A Stamford native, Silver's distinguished career as a Connecticut trial attorney includes many high profile, landmark cases, including in his role as lead counsel in the Mianus River Bridge collapse trial and pro-bono work representing prisoners at Danbury Correctional Institution to eliminate overcrowding.

"I'm especially delighted to receive this honor because of the wonderful work the organization does," Silver said. It really is a wonderful resource for this community, and we don't know how lucky we are to have an independent charity organization that does the work that this organization does."

The Circle of Champions past honorees for the tournament include Dick Taber, Mike Cacace, Esq., Ernest Abate, Esq., Jevera and Bill Hennessey, Esqs. Honorable Gerald Fox, Jr., Patricia and Paul Kuehner, Clay Fowler, and Rey Giallongo, Jr.

"We are proud to recognize Rick for his professionalism, integrity and dedication to advocating for the rights of those in our community," Bordelon said. "We are fortunate to have his support, and thankful that he is in our corner championing for vulnerable seniors."
