Artist Stephanie Lush-Mastriano will lead this fun and friendly workshop inspired by the famous French artist Edgar Degas, who is especially identified with the subject of dance.

A live ballerina will pose as a model for the attendees to use as inspiration to create their own painting.

Small canvases will be provided; participants may bring larger canvases if they prefer to create a larger painting. Easels, paint, brushes and drawing materials will be available.

Beginning painters and professional artists are welcome and participants may bring their own wine and refreshments. Fee for the workshop is $45 and registration is necessary by April 22nd at the DAC website.

The DAC Visual Arts Studio is located at 2 Renshaw Road, behind the Darien Town Hall. For questions, call (203) 655-8683.
