State Rep. Terrie Wood (Republican-141st district) invites her constituents to attend a post-session "town hall" meeting with her on the evening of Monday, May 14 in the Community Room at the Darien Library from 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

She will answer questions from any interested resident of Norwalk or Darien about state issues and how they affect her district, including the 2018 legislative session, updates to the state budget, legislation that became law, and other issues attendees would like to hear addressed by their state representative.
