During World War II, he served in Europe with the U.S. Army's 160 Engineering Combat Battalion (3rd Army) in Normandy, Northern France, the Rhine Crossings, the Ardennes and Central Europe. Upon his return, he lived in Stamford and worked as a carpenter. He joined the Postal Service in 1960 and moved to Darien in 1964.

Stuart was an avid swimmer, and enjoyed going to Weed and Pear Tree Point beaches well into his 80s. Some of his fondest memories were of summers at Lake Sunapee in New Hampshire with his family.

The family will receive friends from 10 to 11 a.m., Monday, March 26, 2018 at the Edward Lawrence Funeral Home, 2119 Post Road, Darien, followed by a short memorial service at 11 a.m. Burial will follow at Spring Grove Cemetery in Darien.
