

'Ten Steps to Writing a Successful College Application Essay' an Online Presentation Coming Monday

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Education, Parents & Kids, Teens

Tagged as : Applying to College 2022, College Applications 2022

Date : September 6, 2022

Greenwich-based writing, editing, and tutoring company A Bloc of Writers will provide guidance and tips about how to tackle the Common Application essay prompts and various supplemental essays in a virtual event Monday evening.

— an announcement from A bloc of Writers and Greenwich Library

The online presentation for high school students and their parents, "Ten Steps to Writing a Successful College Application Essay," is free and sponsored by Greenwich Library. It takes place from 7 to 8 p.m., Monday, Sept. 12. The event is free, but registration is required.

Also covered in the presentation will be tips on how to:

- tackle the Common Application essay prompts and various supplemental essays;
- select appropriate topics and themes;
- brainstorm ideas for essays,
- organize and focus the essays;
- avoid common mistakes

A Bloc of Writers is a Greenwich-based writing, editing, and tutoring company who have been helping students become better writers — in person and online — since 2014. Their tutors are professional writers, editors and teachers.