Thank you, Janet Kling for your volunteer work in the Darien Land Trust, with your social media expertise and fundraising success with the annual Farm to Table Dinner.

—This article is part of a series of daily articles profiling the volunteers recognized in May at the Darien annual volunteer recognition luncheon organized by the Community Fund of Darien.

What Janet Kling Has Been Doing in the Darien Land Trust

Janet came on to the DLT Board over two years ago and has hit the ground running.

She has taken awareness of the Land Trust's mission to a whole new level with her social media savvy and this year is co-chair of the Development Committee.

Janet is an active fundraiser and has been integral to the success of the annual Farm to Table Dinner.

In addition, Janet has helped to bring on a base of talented new trustees, bringing a fresh vitality to the Board.

She does all of this in conjunction with raising four young children and serving the community in many other ways.

About This Series

- The profiles in this series were presented at the 2019 volunteer recognition luncheon held at the Darien Community Association and recorded (in this video) by Darien TV79.
- Darien runs on volunteers — from our churches to our town government, schools, political parties, sports teams, three fire departments and our local nonprofits. They're the largest part of what makes this town a community. We should all encourage them and thank them.
- Darienite.com is running this series now, while more people are thinking about whether they want to volunteer in the upcoming year.
- Each article presents the description provided about that volunteer (or sometimes more than one) as provided by an organization that benefited from that person's efforts.
