Thank you, Jill McCammon, for volunteering to help the Community Fund of Darien with strategic planning.

McCammon is also a member of the Darien Board of Education, also a volunteer position.

Jill McCammon's Work at the Community Fund of Darien

Jill McCammon probably should have never answered the phone when we called to ask her to help with strategic planning. Upon learning that Jill had experience, we knew we had a rock star!

Jill dove right in and not only led the team but introduced new ideas, researched nonprofit organizations, and kept the team focused with her kind and professional manner.

Her contribution of time, talent and expertise far exceeded our expectations! Thank you Jill for your dedication to the mission of The Community Fund of Darien and for your volunteer work in town. You truly make a difference where you live.

—Janet King, executive director of the Community Fund of Darien

Correction: An earlier version of this article, based on the description provided, erroneously said Jill McCannon worked for McKinsey & Co.

About This Series

- The profiles in this series were presented at the 2019 volunteer recognition luncheon held at the Darien Community Association and recorded (in this video) by Darien TV79.

- Darien runs on volunteers — from our churches to our town government, schools, political parties, sports teams, three fire departments and our local nonprofits. They're the largest part of what makes this town a community. We should all encourage them and thank them.
- Darienite.com is running this series now, while more people are thinking about whether they want to volunteer in the upcoming year.
- Each article presents the description provided about that volunteer (or sometimes more than one) as provided by an organization that benefited from that person's efforts.
