When the owner of a 2011 Toyota Sienna parked the minivan in a Darien Railroad Station parking lot at 33 West Ave. at about 5 a.m., Wednesday, Sept. 25, he left it unlocked.

When he found that it wasn't there on his return at about 7 p.m., Thursday, he realized that there may have been a spare key inside. He reported the matter to police at 8:31. Police said there were no signs of forced entry in the area.
