Victor F. “Butch” Domikis, Jr. of New Britain, passed away Tuesday Oct. 12, at Autumn Lake Health Center in New Britain. He was 70.

Born on July 23, 1951 in New Britain, he was a former Darien resident, moving back to New Britain 28 years ago. Butch was a veterinary tech at two veterinarian locations — in Norwalk and Stamford.

He enjoyed camping at Dell-Aire Campground in Tolland for the past 20 years.

Surviving is his life partner of 32 years, Donald Boyle of New Britain; two nephews, James Egan of Norwalk and Robert Egan and his wife Sarah of Rhode Island; as well as his two dogs, Brandy and Jasper. Victor was predeceased by his parents, Victor Domikis Sr. and Dolly (Brennan) Domikis; a brother, Robert Domikis and a sister, Donna Egan.

His funeral will take place at 5 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 20, at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain. Calling hours are from 4 p.m. until the funeral starts.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Farrell Treatment Center, 586 Main Street, New Britain, CT 06051.
