By all accounts, Bill was a warm and fun-loving person with a quick wit and incredible sense of humor. He was a great friend, loving brother and caring son. He had the unique ability to personally connect with everyone he met and he brought joy and laughter to all around him.

Bill was an amazing cook, loved boating on Lake Champlain; fishing on the Cape; tailgating at New York Giants games; playing guitar, drums and jamming with his band, Pikus; playing golf; skiing; and, most of all, sharing good times with good friends. His passing leaves a tremendous void in the lives of all those who loved him — and he will be dearly missed.

Bill is survived by his loving parents, Wayne and Emily Jostrand of Chatham, Mass. and Vero Beach, Fl.; his brother, Sten Jostrand (and spouse Kay) of Stowe, Vt.; sister, Katie Jostrand Angell (and spouse Jake) of Mendham, N.J.; and his aunt, Jane Henry Ives of Vero Beach, Fl. and her family. He was also the much loved uncle to five adoring nieces and nephews, Graeme and Elsa Jostrand of Stowe, Vt. and Jack, Addy and Brooke Angell of Mendham, N.J. He was recently pre-deceased by his canine companion Wallace, his beautiful black lab.

A memorial service is planned for 11 a.m., June 10, 2017 at First Congregational Church in Old Greenwich. A celebration of his life will also be held in Burlington later that month. In lieu of flowers, donations in Bill's memory can be made to the Community Sailing Center in Burlington.
