A 52-year-old Darien woman told police that two business checks were stolen from her and used to remove $5,000 from a bank account of hers, and she suspects her ex-boyfriend.

The woman said she'd broken up with the boyfriend, a 53-year-old Darien man, two months ago, after a four-year relationship. She thinks he did the same thing last December, but she never reported it to police.

Police detectives are investigating the matter.
