

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

Young Composers Asked to Submit Compositions for the Young Composers Concert

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Auditions, Education, Music, Parents & Kids, Teens

Tagged as : Darien Public Schools Music Department 2021-2022, Young Composers Concert 2022

Date : February 21, 2022

Attention Young Composers! The Music Department of the Darien Public Schools will be sponsoring the 22nd annual Young Composers Concert at 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, April 6 in the Darien High School Auditorium.

The deadline for submissions is March 14.

— an announcement from the Darien Public Schools Music Department

This program is open to all students currently enrolled in the Darien Public Schools. It is a great opportunity for students to compose their own original music and share it with an audience.

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

Please read the guidelines below and speak to your school music teacher if you have any questions. Good luck!

Guidelines and Rules

Compose an original song! All compositions music be student-created, but may have the guidance of a teacher or parent. See the checklist on the entry form for assessment criteria.

Submit a Google Form (link below) and upload a digital file of a live video recording and a copy of the composition/written representation of the piece on or before Monday, March 14.

A committee will review the compositions and notify students who are accepted. Selected composers must perform their composition at the concert.

Click here for a copy of the 2022 Young Composers flyer.

Click here for the Google Form to upload the required information and enter your composition.